

Dan Randow to Attend eDemocracy Meeting in the USA

Dan Randow will participate in the Deepening Online Deliberation meeting in Minnesota on June 24 and 25.

The Deepening Online Deliberation meeting is sponsored by the Online Working Group of the Deliberative Democracy Consortium. Dan was invited to attend by Steven Clift and Tim Erickson of E-Democracy.Org

This is a two day hands-on meeting of the Online Working Group of the Deliberative Democracy Consortium. It will bring together Minneapolis/St Paul, US and international leaders in Deliberative Democracy and eDemocracy. While in the US, Dan will also meet with various other eDemocracy leaders in Minneapolis and St Paul.

On his return, Dan will be offering a briefing about current eDemocracy trends and best practices in the US and beyond. The briefing will consist of a presentation to a group of any size, followed by questions and answers.

If you would like to receive or host a briefing session, please contact GroupSense. If you let us know the particular questions that you are interested in, Dan will research them while in the US.

ABEL eCampus Case Study Available

The ICANZ Journal has published an article about the eCampus that GroupSense provides for ABEL.

The Institute of Chartered Accountants Journal has published an article about the eCampus that GroupSense provides for Advanced Business Education Ltd.

UK E-Democracy Project Success

The success of the UK E-Democracy projects using GroupServer is attracting some media attention.

The UK E-Democracy projects using GroupServer have featured in UK eGovernment portal eGov monitor and ZDNet

You can visit the Newham and Brighton-Hove public issues forums.

GroupServer Available for Download

The second release of GroupServer, 0.1rc1 is now available for free download.

With support from E-Democracy.Org, the second release of GroupServer is now available to download.